

Announcement of Faculty Vacancy
Tenure Track Position in Early Modern European Art History
(Assistant Professor level)
Beginning Fall 2016 Semester

Duties/responsibilities: Teach the equivalent of four undergraduate art history classes each semester (12 semester units); share responsibility for teaching the senior seminar in art history; assist with curriculum development (including development of a topics seminar in area of specialization); serve on Department, College, and University committees; engage in Community service relevant to areas of teaching and research; assist with academic advising and mentoring of students; assist with oversight of campus activities involving art history (student club, annual art history symposium, etc.); and work collaboratively with faculty colleagues.

Education: A PhD in Art History, earned by August 2016.

Required Qualifications: Scholarly specialization in Early Modern European art, 15th-18th century; evidence of scholarly engagement and potential; commitment to excellence in teaching; one year of successful college-level teaching experience in art history; ability to teach upper-division courses in Renaissance and Baroque art history; demonstrated ability to work with a diverse student population.

Preferred Qualifications: Record of scholarship in Renaissance and/or Baroque art; experience in teaching a lower-division Western art history survey (Prehistoric through Medieval, Renaissance through Baroque) as instructor of record; ability to teach upper-division courses in Greco-Roman and Medieval art history; a global approach to European art history, expressing a knowledge of Europe's interaction with the rest of the world; ability to assist with the recruitment of majors and minors.

Application Procedure: Applications are only accepted through the Sacramento State jobs website located at <http://www.csus.edu/about/employment>. Instructions on how to apply can also be found at this link. External applicants can apply by clicking on the Faculty, Staff, and Management Opportunities link (job I.D. number 101495). Priority review of applications will begin on Dec. 1, 2015. The position is open until filled.

Materials: Applicants must submit the first five (5) documents in the order specified as one PDF file:

- cover letter describing the applicant's teaching and research experience as well as addressing qualifications and skills that are specific to this position
- one-page statement about teaching philosophy and research interests
- current curriculum vitae
- names and contact information of at least three recent references who can speak to the professional qualifications of the applicant (this information may be provided on the last page of the CV)
- unofficial transcripts attesting to highest degree earned (official transcripts will be required if a campus interview is scheduled)

In addition, applicants must attach the following two (2) documents as individual PDF files:

- writing sample (e.g., dissertation chapter, manuscript of a scholarly article accepted for publication, or equivalent material)
- one syllabus from a college-level art history course for which the applicant served as the instructor of record

Please direct any questions regarding this faculty position to the Chair of the Art History Search Committee, Professor Pattaratorn Chirapravati (patchira@csus.edu). For information about the Art Department and its programs, go to: <http://www.al.csus.edu/art/>

California State University, Sacramento is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.